

The Hearts Center's
2009 WORLD FREEDOM SUMMER CONFERENCE
Driving directions and Airport Shuttle to Big Sky Resort

Shuttle service will be available between the Bozeman Airport and the Big Sky Resort. The cost is $25 each way. To schedule your pickup email: transportation@theheartscenter.org.

From the Bozeman-Big Sky Airport

Exit Gallatin Field making a right turn onto Hwy. 10 (also Frontage Road). Drive 1.4 miles west through the small town of Belgrade. Turn left onto Hwy. 291 (also Jackrabbit Lane). This road passes over Interstate 90 and becomes Hwy. 85 and then Hwy. 191 (also Gallatin Road). Once over I-90, proceed south 7 miles, go straight through the four-way stop light on Hwy. 191. Continue south on Hwy. 191 for 39 miles.

At stoplight, by the Conoco gas station, turn right at MT Hwy. 64 (also Lone Mountain Trail) and go west 9 miles to the Mountain Village, passing through the Meadow Village. Turn left at the "Welcome to Big Sky Mountain Village" sign, then right at the dead end on to Low Dog Road. Follow the road up to the first high-rise seven-story complex, which is the reception for the Huntley Lodge, Stillwater Condominiums. The second tall structure is the Summit, our conference meeting facility.

From downtown Bozeman

Take Main Street and continue west past the Gallatin Valley Mall. Main Street becomes Huffine Lane. Continue west approximately 8 miles to a stop light at the intersection of Hwy. 191 and Huffine Lane (Four Corners). Turn left (south) on Hwy. 191 and continue for 39 miles.

Turn right (west) at MT Hwy. 64 (stoplight) and go west 9 miles to the Mountain Village, passing through the Meadow Village. Turn left at the "Welcome to Big Sky Mountain Village" sign, then right at the next small intersection. Follow the road up to the first tall seven-story complex, which is the reception for the Huntley Lodge, Shoshone Condominium Hotel, Big Sky Central Reservations and Yellowstone Conference Center. If you are a guest at Summit, Big Horn or Arrowhead, check in at the Summit, the second tall structure. The complex is .5 miles from the welcome sign.

From West Yellowstone

Head north out of West Yellowstone, MT on Hwy 287/191. Approximately 10 miles north of West Yellowstone, Hwy 287 turns to the west, but you will continue straight on Hwy 191. You will pass through a corner of Yellowstone Park along the 47-mile route. There are numerous trail heads and excellent wildlife-watching along the way. You will be near the turn to Big Sky (Hwy 64) when you pass an elementary school on the left and an Exxon station and other commercial businesses on the right. At the stoplight turn west (left) on Hwy 64 and go west 9 miles to the Mountain Village, passing through the Meadow Village. Turn left at the "Welcome to Big Sky Mountain Village" sign, then right at the next small intersection. Follow the road up to the first tall seven-story complex, which is the reception for the Huntley Lodge and Stillwater Condominiums. The Summit, our conference meeting facility is the second tall structure.

The northwest border of Yellowstone Park is only 18 miles south of the Big Sky turnoff. The actual gateway to Yellowstone is West Yellowstone, MT; 47 miles south of Big Sky.
